Flag and Pole Dedication

Virginia Morgan

On the brisk, cool Wednesday afternoon of November 6th, a flag and flagpole were donated to Center School through the generosity of Mrs. Eliot Shoolman, in memory of her husband, Mr. Eliot B. Shoolman. Cheers and oohs and ahs from the school children filled the air as an Honor Guard from Florence Eastman Post 280 American Legion hoisted the flag.

Ohs and ahs could be heard across the lawn at Center School as the flag was raised.

In accepting the donation School Committee Chairman Peter B. Hodges said, "The rights of this country have taught us to cherish the flag. We have been given the freedom to meet here today and freedom to express our own opinions. I think of the students now and later who will see and appreciate this flag. And let it be a reminder of the rights your parents, grandparents and great-grandparents fought for so we can honor this flag today."

Greetings were extended by Old Rochester Regional High School District Business Manager Andrew J. Santos from School Superintendent Joan Walsh who was unable to attend. Mr. Santos commented, "I think of America's past, present and future when I look at your faces - the similarities and differences - this I see in the American flag." Mr. Santos added that the school committee planned to arrange for the flag to be lighted at night.

Selectmen Chairman John N. DeCosta, who is also Legion Commander, led the Honor Guard in preparing the flag for attachment to the pole and led the audience in the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag after it reached the top of the pole. The 60-foot fiberglass pole was made in Maine.

Mr. DeCosta explained the new flagpole was placed in the same spot as the original one many years ago (the school was built in 1897) and had to be removed in the late 1960s. He said many of the older residents who attended Center School will remember the flagpole. He gave the town's thanks to Highway Surveyor Wesley Bowman and his crew for the cement work in preparing the foundation and to Brownell Boat Works for the crane and crew to set the pole in place.

In expressing the town's thanks to Mrs. Shoolman, Mr. DeCosta told the gathering that Mrs. Shoolman and her late husband donated the flagpole in front of Town Hall. "Mrs. Shoolman loves children and has done many good things for them in this town. On behalf of the Board of Selectmen, I thank Mrs. Shoolman for her generous gift."

Center school Principal John Murphy said in celebration of this happy occasion the children would sing a song dedicated to welcoming guests at the school, "Howdy-you-do; howdy-you do, Center School friend of mine". Mr. Murphy thanked Mrs. Shoolman for her gift that the children can enjoy and appreciate for many years.

The Old Hammondtown School Band, under the direction of Stan Ellis, played "The Star Spangled Banner" and the "Old Hammondtown School March".

Leading the students in singing, with the audience joining in, "You're a Grand Old Flag" and "God Bless America", was Jean West, music director.

A bouquet of flowers and a Center School sweatshirt was presented to Mrs. Shoolman by two first graders, Sean Crowley and Elizabeth Valliere. The gifts were from the students and staff of Center School.

Long Wharf Bids on Hold

MATTAPOISETT SELECTMEN'S MEETING
NOVEMBER 5, 1991-by VIRGINIA MORGAN

Selectmen last Tuesday took under advisement three bids opened at the meeting to do emergency repairs to Long Wharf. Design plans were prepared on a short notice by John DeRugeris, who is donating his expertise to the town on wharf repairs. He was unavailable Tuesday, but will review the bids before a decision is reached, explained Selectmen Chairman John DeCosta.

Selectman Daniel O. Mahoney opened the discussion on wharf repairs with Harbormaster Steven Mach, saying, "There are provisions in our contract with AGM Marine Contractors to repair Middle Wharf for changes on an emergency basis, but because Middle Wharf is in real trouble, we decided to stay with the AGM contract to repair Middle Wharf."

Under the rules of Emergency Procurement selectmen declared an emergency procurement due to the fact that the damages to Long Wharf, created by the unforeseen emergency of Hurricane Bob, would endanger the safety of persons and property, namely Long Wharf.

Chairman DeCosta said he, Mr. Mach, Mr. DeRugeris and Highway Surveyor Wesley Bowman toured by boat around the wharves to assess where the emergency repairs are most needed. It was determined the bellying of Long Wharf may have been here awhile They agreed the southeast corner needed extra shoring.

All bids came in higher than expected and exceeded available or anticipated funds, the chairman noted. Specifications were sent to six companies; three responded.

Bidders were: AGM Marine Contractors of Mashpee, $59,978 for concrete and gravel fill, debris cleanup and asphalt paving and $12,350 for repointing existing face stones to prevent erosion; Linberg Marine, Inc. of Fairhaven, $85,320 and $19,000; and C.R.C., Inc. of Quincy, $77,140 and $31,000.

Harbormaster Mach explained that because money for the repairs to Middle Wharf won't have to be borrowed until after January 1, 1992 and with the first payment not due until the fiscal 1993 budget, about $50,000 in delayed interest on the bond will be available for Long Wharf repairs. The interest payments on the $239,999 to repair Middle Wharf will come from retained earnings in the Wharf Enterprise Fund, said Mr. Mach.

Chairman DeCosta explained there had to be a cutoff date as the tree warden's budge is now $22,000 over budget. However, selectmen agreed to see about the pick-up of the branches.

On behalf of the board, Chairman DeCosta extended thanks to all who volunteered their time at the Halloween Party, with special thanks to the police department who conduct the annual fun event. Parents and children were happy with the party at Center School gym despite unfavorable weather conditions for the annual parade, he said.

Mattapoisett Republicans

The Mattapoisett Republican Town Committee invites new members for the 1992 roster. Anyone who lives in town and is a registered Republican is welcome to join.

The members of the committee are involved in helping able republican candidates get elected to positions of leadership in public office. Republicans help make the two-party system work in Massachusetts.

People must be involved at the local level for government of the people, for the people to continue. People need to be public-spirited and one way to be actively involved is by joining the Republican Town Committee. You can make a difference. Call Carleton Burr at 758-2478 for more information about joining.

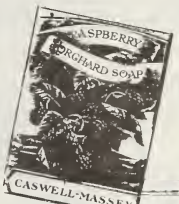
ESTABLISHED 1752

Available Here



CASWELL-MASSEY invites you to lose yourself to the joy of fragrance at its best. Since 1752, when we first began to serve the well-to-do carriage trade of Newport, we have been a favorite for individuals with a passion for the best. It is a passion we have shared with George Washington who bought our Number Six Cologne by the case for his own use and to give to his friend the Marquis de Lafayette ... and with a long line of luminaries, among them Greta Garbo, Edgar Allen Poe, Sarah Bernhardt, Maurice Chevalier, Errol Flynn, White House families ... The passion continues to this day. Immerse yourself in the legends and lore behind our old-world preparations, fine fragrances and opulent range of rare and unusual bathing essentials. You will find each bespeaks a quality and craftsmanship rarely found today. Enjoy.

LWV Annual Phonathon

Members of the Tri-Town League of Women Voters will be working the telephones Saturday and Sunday, November 16th and 17th in their second annual Phonathon. The League will be phoning from Sippican Corporation which has been kind enough to donate the use of its phones for this two-day effort.

League of Women Voters dues support three levels of service; local, state and national, so it is necessary for the local tri-town league to raise additional money to support its local activities. The phonathon was added to the Marion, Mattapoisett, Rochester Telephone Book as a league fund-raiser because, as an intense effort over a short period of time, it allows LWV members to spend more of their energies on community-related activities.

1992 is an important election year and the League will be very busy working locally on Voter Service which means candidates' nights, warrant nights and, it is to be hoped, a local candidates' information sheet. It also plans to encourage more voter registration and to work on getting out voters.

In addition, the tri-town league is participating in the national League's health study and is about to take part in the state League's Fiscal Policy study which will look at tations are being mailed to Hospice members this week for the opening which will be from 6 to 8 p.m. at the gallery on Route 6 in Mattapoisett, next to Antone's Restaurant.

Assisting on the Friends of Hospice committee are Helen Arthur, Jean Briggs, Cherrell Hughes and Nancy McFadden of Marion and Elizabeth Field of Mattapoisett.

Hospice Tree of Lights

Plans for the fourth annual Lighthouse Hospice Tree of Lights were announced this week by Elizabeth Field of Mattapoisett, chairman of the 1991 celebration. Everyone is invited to dedicate one or more lights on the tree in memory or in honor of a loved one.

For each donation of $5. to Hospice a miniature clear light will be placed on the tree, which will remain lighted throughout the Christmas season. Last year more than 1200 lights brightened the giant evergreen outside the Hospice office in Wareham. This year's tree has been donated by the Field family.

Everyone in the community is invited to a tree lighting ceremony at 5:30 p.m. on Wednesday, December 11th, with an open house and refreshments to follow, at the Hospice office at 166 Main Street, Wareham, next to Tobey Hospital. The junior choir of the First Congregational Church of Rochester, led by choir director Violet Taylor, will sing carols.

Donations for lights may be left at the Hospice office, or may be mailed to Hospice at P.O. Box 448, Wareham, MA 02571. Lights will be added to the tree for donations received after the lighting ceremony.

The Tree of Lights is part of the local observance of National Hospice Month, proclaimed by the president to focus attention on the work of the organization. Lighthouse

A general meeting of the Friends of the Mattapoisett Library will be held on Saturday, November 23rd, at 11:00 a.m. at the Library.

The agenda will include discussion on the following topics: construction and approval of a library sign to display library hours; sponsorship of the Annual Crafts and Art Show held in August of each year at the library which hosts approximately 20 booths of demonstrated crafts and arts. We will be taking a vote for sponsorship of this show and hope to form a subcommittee to complete the details.

We often find it hard to take some of the words of Jesus too seriously. He is our Teacher as long as we understand and can agree with whatever he says. When Jesus speaks of the "end times" we try to block this out. Are we sure that this will not happen? Do we fear this will take place in our time? Is it a painful thought?

It may be all or none of these, but we cannot avoid or factor out his words. The sermon will focus on the ways in which we

Friends of the Elderly

SOCIAL ACTIVITY DAY

The Friends of the Elderly are looking forward to resuming their social activity day after a two-week interruption. This Wednesday the seniors will be making turkeys for the nursing homes. The activity is usually followed by a game and friendly conversation.

The Friends of the Elderly welcome all seniors to join in Activity Day. It is held every Wednesday from 1:30 to 3:00 at the Village court. No one is obligated to participate in the activities; sometimes just the socializing brings a nice change in the day. No reservations are required;just a friendly smile.

SHARE PROGRAM

SHARE is a program set up to help families stretch their food dollars. Everyone is eligible, young and old. For $14.00 you receive $30-$35 worth of frozen meats, fresh produce, and fresh fruits. You need only put in two hours of community service to be eligible. This could be helping an elderly neighbor, babysitting, visiting nursing homes, or giving a hand passing out food on pick-up day.

The next food pick-up day is November 23rd, between 1:00 and 1:45, at the Dunseith Property (the corner of Route 6 and North Street). If you have not registered for November 23rd pick-up day, you may come and register for the December 21st pick-up. Registration for that day will also be held on December 5th between 11:00 and Soon Old Hammondtown School sixth graders will come face to face with marine iguanas bristling with prehistoric scales and horny spines.

Jason Project

They will stand at the mouth of a volcano, plunge into a shallow reef swirling with exotic fish, and swim with sea lions at play. Using the most advanced technology, they will have ring-side seats to actual scientific exploration and a direct link to the scientists on site.

This new age of scientific learning is turning students into first hand scientific explorers. It is inspiring a new enthusiasm in the fields of science and technology. This remarkable experience is called the JASON Project. It began in 1989 as a dream of Dr. Robert Ballard, the Woods Hole Oceanographic Institution scientist whose team found the wrecks of the R.M.S. Titanic and the German battleship Bismarck. It has been brought to life by a partnership of private industry, scientific research facilities, museums, and educational organizations.

The curriculum highlights the science and history of the Galapagos Islands, located on the equator in the eastern Pacific off the coast of Ecuador, as well as the technology which makes this adventure possible.

Culmination of the JASON Project will be an "electronic field trip" to the Galapagos Islands via satellite from the Woods Hole Oceanographic Institution. The students will have the opportunity to participate in an interactive live broadcast from the Galapagos expedition site. Broadcasts will feature Dr. Ballard, his team of scientists, and the remotely operated vehicle, JASON, Jr. first used to explore the wreck of the R.M.S. Titanic.

When your right to a waiver is established, you will not have to pay premiums as long as you are totally disabled and the face amount of your policy will not be decreased.

If premiums on a term policy are being waived, at the time it is converted to permanent plan, premiums will also be waived on the converted policy.

ORR Grad Tracked "Bob"

The following account of Gary Gray's involvement with Hurricane Bob has been given to the Presto by his family, who reports this tour of duty has reinforced Gary's commitment to a career in Meteorology.

On August 19th Hurricane Bob was ravaging part of southeastern Massachusetts. Meanwhile, in Lowell, MA two students of meteorology tracked the storm and kept local authorities informed. One of these students, Gary Gray, is a resident of Rochester and a 1989 graduate of Old Rochester Regional High School. The other student, Scott Kaplan, resides in Brockton. Gary is the Director and Chairman of the U-Mass Lowell Weather Center and the Vice President of U-Mass Lowell Student Chapter of the American Meteorological Society. The U-Mass Lowell Weather Center is the primary source of weather information between Boston and Nashua, NH. Students at the Weather Center are involved in many activities. Students record forecasts on a constantly available phoneline, make forecasts for a professional radio station, WLLH, and also air forecasts of Billerica Access Television Inc. (BATI).

On the afternoon of Friday, August 15th, Gary and Scott noted a disturbance located near the Bahamas was getting organized and the National Hurricane Center in Coral Gables, FL was already considering the new-formed depression's chances of hitting the coast. Gary was supposed to head home from Lowell on Friday; instead he remained in Lowell until Saturday evening. By Saturday Gary had contacted his lead forecaster, Scott Kaplan, and had already touched bases with those who rely on the Weather Center for these events. Through Sunday afternoon Gary watched the action from home.

By Sunday now Hurricane Bob was menacing the coast of the southeast U.S. and increasing in strength all along. By late afternoon Sunday Gary had made more phone calls to the authorities, then rushed to meet Scott in the Weather Lab in Lowell. Gary had to place calls to the Lowell D.P.W., WLLH radio, Billerica Civil Defense, the Chelmsford Emergency Management Service, and the Lowell Red Cross. By late Sunday evening Hurricane Bob brushed the outer banks of North Carolina and was strengthening as he barrelled up the coast toward New England. Scott and Gary were feeling the tension as reports came in that Bob had winds near 120 mph and was racing up the coast at 35 mph.

Scott and Gary had an obligation to the authorities and to themselves and so remained on watch all night Sunday through Monday evening. As Monday morning approached, the excitement of Bob overcame any grogginess the students felt after their all night vigil.

Students at Lowell have a vast array of data available to them. They receive maps and data from the National Weather Service, the National Meteorological Center, and many other specialized governmental meteorological organizations. They also receive radar pictures and satellite imagery. From this data Gary and Scott were able to compile their forecast for Hurricane Bob. Gary contacted his family back home and forecast the passage of Bob's eye (calm center) within minutes.

After all was said and done Scott and Gary were satisfied with and even more exhausted from their work. As parts of New England cleaned up Kaplan and Gray adjusted back to normal life. Mother Nature gave the two a break as the weather eased back into a boring pattern. A clear, calm day takes on an entirely new perspective after having what was officially labeled a minor hurricane alter and even devastate some people's lives. Bob will certainly stick in the minds of Gary Gray and Scott Kaplan for a long time to come.

Gary wishes to thank his family, friends and all those involved in the O.R.R. School District for encouraging him in his already successful career choice.

Holiday Sharing Program

CITIZENS BANK
LAUNCHES A UNIQUE HOLIDAY PROGRAM

On November 12th, Citizens Bank of Massachusetts, formerly Fairhaven Savings Bank, kicked off its first annual "Stuff a Stocking" Holiday Sharing Program. In an effort to make this coming holiday season a little brighter for the increasing number of needy families in the area, the bank, its employees, customers and anyone else who would like to participate, are invited to fill stockings with gift items (toys, trinkets, games, warm clothing, wrapped candy, etc...), which will be distributed by the New Bedford Area Salvation Army during the week of December 15th.

According to Captain Jones of the Salvation Army, "Due to the economic condition in the area we really are anticipating an increase in the number of families in need of the assistance of the neediest family fund." People assisted through the fund will receive gift filled stockings donated Phillip D. Brown, President of the bank, said, "We are a community-spirited bank, and we're happy to be bringing this unique program to the area. We can all share in that wonderful feeling of giving." A similar program has been a long standing tradition at the bank's parent company, Citizens Bank of Rhode Island, except their program involves employees only.

The stockings are geared to children up to 12 years old and elderly men and women. For every filled stocking donated the bank will also donate a filled stocking. To participate in the holiday sharing program just stop by any Citizens Bank of Massachusetts branch and pick up a stocking and information sheet or call Cheryl Rapoza at 979-1300. Filled stockings need to be returned to the bank by December 13.

Zeiterion's Usher Corps

GIVES TICKETS TO YOUTH GROUPS

The usher corps, a group of Zeiterion volunteers, decided to do something different this year with their volunteer fund, the money they receive as tips at the Zeiterion's concession operation. Instead of spending the money on a party, they decided to use the money to buy tickets for area youth organizations to the Zeiterion's Saturday Youth Theatre, sponsored by Citizens Bank of Massachusetts. At the recent youth show, "Little Red Riding Hood and The Three Little Pigs", the ushers purchased tickets for the following New Bedford groups: P.A.C.E.'s HeadStart Program, South First Street Association, the YWCA, United Front Homes, Weld Square Youth, the Boys and Girls club and Youth-a-Flame.

Paul Sher, a Zeiterion volunteer for several years, said, "We decided to use the money for the children because we want children throughout the Greater New Bedford area

Tickets for "Riding on the Storm: The Doors, The Sixties & Now" are $6. for the general public, $5. for UMass faculty and staff, and $4. for UMass students. Tickets will be sold at the door or at the University Box Office, telephone 999-8598. The event is sponsored by the Lecture Series of the Student Senate, 999-8154 or 999-8156.

Densmore is author of Riders of the Storm: My Life with Jim Morrison and The Doors. According to Rolling Stone, Densmore's book "feels like it was written for the right reasons, and it is easily the most informed account of the Doors' brief but brilliant life as a group".

Densmore's talk will include a discussion of lead singer Jim Morrison's self-destructive behavior. According to his biography, he also "explains how the sixties transformed his world view and value system, and how in adulthood he has made peace with that hyperactive turbulence". Proceeds from the talk benefit the Institute for Positive Education and the Minority Student Scholarship Fund.

Additionally, the Oliver Stone movie, The Doors, will be screened at 6 p.m. and 8 p.m. November 18th in the Library Browsing Area. Admission is free.

The property is an odd shaped lot having approximately 210 feet of frontage to the north on Fairhaven Road (Route 6), an east sideline of approximately 300.76 feet, a west sideline of approximately 291.21 feet and a southerly rearline of approximately 178.67 feet, containing approximately 15,527 square feet. A 60 foot by 40 foot service station exists in the center of the property facing north.

A smaller building known as Mattapoisett Alarm exists towards the east side of the property and four boat storage sheds are located on the south side.

At the public hearing, Attorney Michael L. O'Brien, representing the applicant, filed with the board a proposal package containing plot plans and proposed canopy and pump island layouts. A second pump island will be constructed under the canopy along with the existing pump island. One island will be used for "full service" and one will be used for "self service". The proposed construction would reduce the front setback to approximately 28 feet. The applicable street setback requirement is 65 feet.

Joanne Robidoux, a representative of ComElectric, informed the board that it should be aware of the conditions of the ComElectric contract, in reference to the power lines across the property.

The board found there is no other location on the property where the canopy could be placed because of the existence of a right-of-way for electric power lines running through the property. The board also finds that the construction of the new pump island and canopy is necessary in order for the petitioner's business to remain competitive in an industry where self-service pumping has become the industry standard. The board further finds that the erection of the canopy will provide a safer environment for service station customers. In addition, because the canopy will be constructed with state of the art safety features involving fire protection, vapor collection and electric grounding, the board finds the construction of the canopy will provide greater protection against fire or explosion, particularly here where the pumps are in close proximity to high tension wires. The board also finds that because the canopy fascia will be 14 feet above ground it will not obstruct the view of vehicles exiting or entering the property or of vehicles driving along Route 6 even though it will be constructed closer to Route 6 than 65 feet.

The following conditions apply: no signs, lettering, or logos shall be displayed on or from the canopy, canopy fascia or its supports; all lighting shall be recessed under the canopy and shall face downward, and the canopy fascia shall not be backlit, nor shall there be any perimeter lighting on the canopy fascia; one freestanding road sign shall be permitted which shall not exceed 28 feet in height and shall be no wider than the existing seven foot sign and will have three sections; 7 foot by 7 foot company logo sign, 5 foot by 6 foot pricing sign located directly under the logo sign and one 5 foot by 5 foot credit card sign directly under the price sign.

High demand for intensive care services over the past several years has meant the unit has often operated at 100 percent capacity. Because of this, a small number of patients who sought treatment at Tobey had to be transferred to Boston or other area hospitals.

"The expansion of our intensive care unit means that more area residents can benefit from our services", noted Minniet Pilgrim, RN, vice president of Nursing Services at Tobey. "With our new monitoring equipment, we offer the kind of technology that was found only in larger, urban medical centers. When families must deal with the stress of a critically ill loved one, it makes such a difference to have this care available close to home."

Tobey has equipped the unit with ten new computerized monitors that give staff more extensive information about a patient's progress. The monitors provide simultaneous information on a whole range of medical parameters, including: abnormal heart rhythms, blood pressure, pulse, and even how well the patient's blood is receiving oxygen. The monitors can track this information over a period of time, and provide physicians and nurses with a computerized readout that summarizes a patient's condition over the course of a day.

A single monitor takes the place of several different pieces of equipment that were previously needed to provide this same information. The monitors were funded, in part, through the generosity of the Friends of Tobey Inc., and the family of the late Philip Lukey (of Marion).

Tobey has also added six registered nurses to the intensive care staff to adequately serve an increased patient volume.

The expansion and equipment purchase is the first phase of a planned renovation of the Barth Intensive Care Unit, which first opened in the late 1960s. The original construction was funded through the generosity of the late Theodore H. Barth, an active trustee and one of the foremost benefactors of the hospital.

Jacobs Brothers Gospel Music

TO BE AT LONG PLAIN BAPTIST CHURCH

The Jacobs Brothers of Dillsburg, PA will appear at Long Plain Baptist Church, 1180 North Main Street, Acushnet on Wednesday, November 20th, at 7:00 p.m.

The Jacobs Brothers are talented young men dedicated to spreading the Gospel through music. Since 1962 the group has traveled millions of miles, produced numerous record albums, and hosted many international tours.

Presently the Jacobs Brothers' weekly television program is aired on more than 30 stations in addition to Satellite TV which reaches most of North America. The King's Kids' Camp, another branch of their ministry, brings thousands of people to central Pennsylvania each summer to hear Gospel music and also provides a Christian camping experience for children.

The group is comprised of three brothers, Bob and Mike Jacobs, who are original members of the group that started in the small town of East Berlin, PA in 1962. The third member, Mike Lawver, who joined the group in 1972, comes from McClure, PA.

The word "versatility" best describes the Jacobs Brothers' program. Although they specialize in traditional and sacred music, their approach to the Gospel is varied by using the diversified talents of the singers throughout the concert. The end result is a program which is appealing to the young

Formed in 1984, Flor de Cana ("Sugar Cane Flower") presents Central, South American and Caribbean rhythms and original compositions with lyrics expressing the need for social change towards a better world. With a range of South American stringed and wind instruments, Caribbean percussion, bass, guitars, saxophone and keyboards and the group's rich vocal harmony, Flor de Cana's music is best described as "Pan-American world beat".

The group takes its inspiration from the Nueva Cancion, "New Song" movement, joining Latin American musical traditions with contemporary social realities in an eloquent expression of hope for a better life.

In 1990 Flor de Cana was chosen as "Outstanding Latin Act" in the Boston Music Awards, an honor bestowed by music industry professionals, the media and the public. The group has shared the stage with Grammy-Award winner Ruben Blades, Latin jazz star Tito Puente and folk maestros

Books and Gourmet Goodies

FRIENDS OF DARTMOUTH LIBRARIES

An innovative two-way approach to critical fund-raising is imminent in current plans of Friends of the Dartmouth Libraries; if bargain books don't tempt buyers, maybe gourmet goodies will.

And so on the weekend of November 15th, Friday, thousands of clean, used books will be offered at irresistible prices in the annual fall book sale at Southworth Library, South Dartmouth. Then on Saturday, the 16th, with the book display tables replenished for additional sales, aromas of sugar and spice and everything nice will be drifting in from the adjoining room where tables will be set up and laden with freshly made cakes and all sorts of homemade goodies.

The happy two-day event is manned by volunteer Friends, a group widely known for their unusual and energetic undertakings for the improvement and enhancement of the services of the town's public libraries. All proceeds from these sales will be used for betterment programs for children and the adult reading public.

Roberta Sawyer, longtime book sale chairperson, has assembled an impressive lot of thousands of previously-read, worthwhile books for this two-day sale. These she has sorted into a score of separate categories for easing the buyers' search. Subjects range from Art to Zen; children's books, cookbooks, mysteries, westerns, romances - almost anything in print, including bibles, dictionaries, encyclopedia, even an occasional dull tome on social problems. There's something for everyone, as they say, at prices that anyone can afford; in this case the hard cover books are 50¢, soft covers sell for 25¢.

On both days the sale hours will be from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Prices at the cake and pastry sale on Saturday will vary with the product, but the co-chairpersons for the event, Joanne Bold and Lee Loranger, have vowed to set prices that are as attractive as is compatible with homebaked goodness; fair, reasonable, and assuredly not to be regretted.

The Friends cordially invite willing donors to contribute books or baked goods for this important fund-raiser. Offers of food may be made by telephone at 993-0266. To arrange for a pickup of book donations call 636-2215.

There is ample parking in the newly enlarged lot east of the library at 732 Dartmouth Street, South Dartmouth, and the entrance to the ground-level sales rooms is handicapped accessible.

From Tobey Hospital

BETTER COMMUNICATION WITH THE DEAF

Deaf individuals have a language and a culture that differs from a hearing culture. Because our society tends to gear itself to the hearing, we aren't always conscious of ways we can better respond to the deaf.

Tobey Hospital and the Mass. Commission for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing (MCDHH) are sponsoring an educational session on this topic on Tuesday, November 19th, in the hospital library. The program, "Bridging the Gap: Enhancing Communication With the Deaf and Hard of Hearing", will be from 8 to 10:30 a.m. or 1 to 3:30 p.m. The program is free and light refreshments

SPORTS COMPLEX AT OLD COLONY NAMED FOR SUPERINTENDENT

The outdoor sports complex at Old Colony Regional Vocational-Technical High School has been named in honor of the school's Superintendent/Director John T. Oliveira.

Mr. Oliveira, a resident of Lakeville who has served as Superintendent/Director since Old Colony's inception in 1975, will retire in January. A respected educator, he spearheaded the development and growth of the high school in its academic, vocational-technical and extra curricular components.

The athletic complex, consisting of a field house, concession stand, bleachers and surrounding playing areas, was formally dedicated at a recent homecoming football game with a commemorative plaque presented to Mr. Oliveira by the school's athletic director, Claudia Harkin. Students, faculty and staff, school committee representatives and members of the communities served by the region were on hand.

The plaque, a tribute to Mr. Oliveira's consistent support of athletics, reads, in part, "From all past, present and future athletes, faculty and staff."

The presentation capped a coordinated effort by several OC departments in refurbishing and renovating the area, with extensive work being done by members of the carpentry, electrical and welding depart-

TRICK OR TREAT FOR HOMELESS

To celebrate Halloween the Old Colony chapter of the National Honor Society participated in a Trick or Treat for the Homeless program. Instead of collecting candy and treats, they collected non-perishable food items.

Despite the inclement weather, over 100 food items were gathered. These have been donated to Market Ministries, a shelter for the homeless, at 60 Eighth Street, New Bedford.

Participants in the project from Mattapoisett were Michelle Trudeau and Sherry Bowman, and in Rochester, Jessica Cecil and Doug Lemieux.
